Dear members of the Kunstverein Baselland

This year's art trip will take us to the Rhône-Alpes region to the Lyon Biennale, one of the most important art biennials for contemporary art. We will visit the various exhibition venues together for two days and would like to discuss what we have seen with you and end the trip with some convivial moments. Under the title «Les voix des fleuves, Crossing the water», the participating artists have been invited by Alexia Fabre, Director of Beaux-Arts de Paris and curator of this year's Biennale de Lyon, to explore the theme of the growing and dwindling relationships between people and their environment.

We are looking forward to experiencing interesting artistic positions together with you and to an enriching exchange on this current topic, which also repeatedly plays a central role in the curatorial program of the Kunsthhaus Baselland - not least in the opening exhibition «Rewilding». The trip will be led by Ines Goldbach and Martina Stähli.
